

On This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

IS MY face red! . . . and all because of the wearing of the green. . . . But, anyway, it was gratifying to know that so many people read this left-hand column in The Sun. . . . When I inadvertently placed St. Patrick's Day on Feb. 17 instead of March 17, where it should be and is, I started something. . . . Ever since Tuesday, when the item appeared, I have been bombarded with postcards, letters, phone calls and personally insulted on Palm Canyon drive. ♦ ♦ ♦

COMMENTS were varied, humorous and interesting. . . . One letter set forth that the writer realized that the war had changed many things but did not think that it had changed the day for wearing of the green. . . . Ireland wasn't in the war, you know," was the postscript. . . . Another note asked: "Did the recent experiment here in Suntime when they set the clocks ahead an hour, so upset you that you shoved the months ahead by one? . . . Most of the cards and letters were signed by names which had the sound of Celtic origin . . . and you could detect the Old Sod in the voices of those who telephoned. ♦ ♦ ♦

OUTSIDE of that, Lincoln's Birthday WAS on February 12, St. Valentine's Day IS today and Washington's birthday WILL be a week from tomorrow . . . I bet someone will call me on that. . . . They'll write in and say Washington's birthday is Feb. 11 . . . they'll be right, at that, for they were using the old calendar when the Father of this country was born. . . . Anyway, just keep on that painted necktie, if any, next Monday . . . you won't have to dig out the green one for a month. . . . And to all of the Irish in town, real and those who just like to sing "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," my apologies. ♦ ♦ ♦

THE MAIL brought in another smart and interesting card. . . . It was cleverly addressed with clippings from The Desert Sun. . . . It called attention to another error in The Sun for which, I am grateful to say, I had nothing to do with. . . . (Boy, would my old English teacher crown me for the construction of that last sentence!) . . . At any rate, even the greeting on the card—"Phat" was clipped from the top of this column. . . . Context of the card: "This time it's not benches or sunshine or even the weather, but just take a look at the clipping below which is from, guess whose newspaper!" . . . And the clipping, pasted on the postcard, (Published every Tuesday and Friday in AMERICA'S foremost desert resort) . . . the card closed with a plea to spell America correctly. . . . "Let's spell America right next week. Okay? A careful Sun reader, R.G.H. . . . Why wait until next week? . . . Hey, Mac, how's about striking the "T" in today? ♦ ♦ ♦

GOING BACK to birthdays—and I'm pretty sure I'm right on this one—last Tuesday was the centennial celebration of the birth of Thomas A. Edison, who gave us light, music and countless other items. . . . Checking back in the encyclopedia, I find that the man of 1,000 inventions and I have something in common . . . the time I balanced on my lap last night to get a little light on the great inventor, set forth that of all his inventions, his favorite was the phonograph . . . that's mine, too! . . . The ironic part of it is that because his partial deafness he was never able to enjoy fully his invention which is now giving so much pleasure to millions. . . . And which probably bothers my neighbors nightly. ♦ ♦ ♦

STILL on the topic of holidays. The town was full of city hall workers and bank employees Wednesday. . . . Palm Canyon drive was crowded, the restaurants, lounges and stores did a brisk business . . . it was a holiday . . . Lincoln's birthday. . . . And the reason that I saw city hall employees and bank workers is that city offices and banks throughout the southland were the only ones to observe the day, allowing their staffs to flock to the desert. . . . This is a bit far-fetched but true—Mrs. Frank Partridge asked her husband the other day: Have you and Phat parted friendships? I see where he's riding you in his column." . . . Partridge checked back and found she was referring to the mention of the FSP, which happens to be his initials, too. . . . From the fish box file comes this one: The Three Caballeros at Mr. Dee's certainly put out the music—and their successors Linda Lopez, top piano star, and her two guitarists, Mario Sanchez and Jose Coriz, who start Feb. 18, are also rated high. . . . Meaning plenty of entertainment. ♦ ♦ ♦

WELL, having straightened up the St. Patrick's Day affair and having put the T in America, I guess I'll call it a day and go out and enjoy the sunshine. (If it's raining this afternoon, please note that this was written in the cool gray dawn.)

Raids on Cars Said Cleared In Arrest of 8

Automobile accessory thefts reported over a period of two months in the Village may be cleared up with the arrest in Banning and Indio of a group of "hot-rod" drivers ranging in age from 15 to 20 years.

In the Riverside county jail are James Fantz, 20, Carlos Byrd, 19, and Norman Johnson, 20, all of Indio, who were arrested by Banning police and charged with the theft of automobile accessories from cars in Palm Springs.

FIVE OTHER "hot-rods", also of Indio, have been placed in the custody of juvenile authorities. The "break" which lead police on a round-up of the entire gang occurred in Indio, when the five teen-agers confessed and assertedly implicated the older members of the gang.

The local police have already recovered automobile tools, fender-pants, hub caps and other accessories. Considerable more loot is being sought by Officers Bob Phillips and Harry Houghton of the Palm Springs police force investigating the case.

FOR THE SECOND TIME in three months, Boyd Moore, telephone company repairman, had more than $400 in valuable tools recovered for him when the gang was finally rounded up. The last time these tools were stolen from a telephone truck, they were found in Bakersfield, California, and the thieves arrested.

Sergeant Stanley Elbert declared that it is seemingly bad luck for thieves to steal Moore's tools.

"Every time, so far," said the sergeant, "the tools lead to the arrest of these car clouts."

Dance Shindig at Garnet Tomorrow Eve, All Welcome

Are you a-goin' to the shindig out at the Desert Mill, Garnet way, tomorra' night pardner?

That was the question being asked all week by members of the Frontier Post of the Veteran of Foreign Wars and the Ladies' auxiliary who have been selling tickets to the affair. Proceeds will go to replenish the coffers of that organization.

The Smoke Mountain Wranglers are scheduled to furnish the music and there will be plenty of square dancing with a professional caller singing out the next steps. In addition, modern dancing is on the agenda. Tickets can be purchased for $1.25 at 398 N. Palm Canyon drive.

P. S. Real Estate Board To Play Host

Louis Gairaud, newly elected president of the fourteenth district of the California Real Estate Association, and other members of that organization, will be guests of the Palm Springs Real Estate Board, February 18, according to Muriel E. Fulton, president.

A luncheon at the Palm Springs Tennis Club will be tendered the visitors at which time Gairaud will be the featured speaker, Miss Fulton said. Western music will prevail during the luncheon period and other speakers will address the group. Miss Fulton will preside.

IT WAS BACK in 1936, November of that year, in fact, that Harry Williams, architect who designed it, and Mrs. Nellie N. Coffman cut the tape that opened The Plaza. The above picture from the "Down Memory Lane" file of Frank Partridge, was taken almost 11 years ago. (Frank Partridge photo.)

Health, Highways, Taxes, Boyd's Topics

State Assemblyman Phil Boyd, speaking before members of the chamber of commerce co-ordinating committee, assured the group that in his opinion the giant road building program bill would meet with success in the state legislature, that a city sales tax ordinance is the most equitable way of raising money for city improvements, and that some form of a health program would be passed into law.

During the course of the luncheon at the Desert Inn, Boyd, in turn, listened to reports of Village activities from the various heads of active organizations there.

BOYD TOLD the group that with the close of the first half of the present session of the legislature, approximately 5000 bills were introduced among which were two introduced by the governor, the highway and the health programs. The latter, in its present form, has to do with compulsory health insurance.

The highway bill, however, according to Boyd, has a good chance of carrying, will bring considerable benefit to Riverside county and Palm Springs. This program entails a cost of $900,000,000 of which the county would get $33,000,000 for improvement of roads and the City of Palm Springs a proportionate share. This includes an allotment to the Village of between eight and nine thousand dollars a year. This amount Boyd said may be

Burglars Get Small Change, Miss Currency

Burglars who broke into the Associated Service Station at the northeast corner to Amado road and Palm Canyon drive Wednesday morning got away with between $20 and $40 in change, but were evidently frightened away because they left a large amount of currency and some other small change behind.

Jud Osborne, owner of the station, was checking up today to determine the exact amount of money taken.

Officers Dale Thompson and H. E. Houghton, investigating the case, believe that the thieves were boys because of the way they gained entrance to the station.

Opposition To Sales Tax Dying Down

Villagers Hear
Needs in Talk by City Manager

Opposition that reared its head to the imposition of a city sales tax in the packed auditorium of the city council chamber last Tuesday night, saw most of those who differed with the proposition swing completely in favor of the plan when the proponents of the idea finished telling why they thought that the tax ranging from one-half cent to as high as two cents should be enacted into a law.

Councilman Armand Turonnet, chairman of the committee investigating the feasibility of a sales tax, took the public hearing over from Mayor Clarence Hyde and quickly asked that those in opposition to the sales tax speak first.

THE MAJORITY of those who came forward to tell why they were against a sales tax claimed they were trailerites living in the Orchard Trailer Park. In addition, at least a half dozen signed petitions were presented to Turonnet's committee at the same time, presumably signed by those in opposition to the tax.

When this side of the hearing was completed, the proponents of a city-wide sales tax rose to speak in turn and as heated at the opposition was, those in favor of the proposition were equally as not in favor of the plan and their suggestions for the amount of tax to be imposed ran from one-half cent to two cents.

CITY MANAGER William E. Alworth was called upon by both sides to explain the reason for the tax and what would be done with the money when raised. When he finished answering the numerous questions and those in favor of a sales tax finished in support of the deal one person after another, formerly in the opposition camp, rose to tell the council that they had changed their minds about the tax.

For a time the meeting turned into one in which the trailerites attempted to show that because they live in trailers the rest of the community should not look down upon them. More than one speaker rose to tell the packed auditorium and the members of the city council that those living in trailers represented a cross-section of good American citizens with many wealthy retired businessmen living in trailers here.

WHEN THE QUESTION of how much taxes the trailerites pay into the city coffers was raised by those in favor of a tax was asked, the reply by subsequent speakers was that people living in trailers spend several million dollars each season with merchants in the Village and a sales tax would become such a burden, many of them would have to leave the city.

In reply to this Dr. E. M. Whitehouse declared that there were hundreds of trailers parked on the desert waiting for an opportunity to take the place of those who would leave the Village.

THE DOCTOR declared that no city can get anywhere without sufficient revenue and cited the case of Springfield, Illinois, a city which paid for an extensive park and recreational center with the aid of a sales tax.

"Don't worry about the trailerites," shouted Dr. Whitehouse. "Let Palm Springs do something."

Earl Coffman Gives Village Plug Over Air

Palm Springs came in for some coast to coast radio-network publicity Tuesday afternoon when Earl Coffman, co-owner of the Desert Inn told the country that despite recent headlines Palm Springs was not given back to the Indians.

On the "News of the World" radio program by John Vandecook emanating from New York City, Earl Coffman, picked up via long distance as he stood in front of a National Broadcasting System microphone in the Fiesta House of the Desert Inn and was interrogated by John Storm of NBC.

COFFMAN explained that despite newspaper reports to the contrary, the recent Ninth Federal Court of Appeals decision which ruled that Lee Arenas, Mission Indian was entitled to his 1927 allotment of land, all of Palm Springs was not given back to the Indians as reported.

The hotel man, who shared the radio spot with Morgan Beatty from Washington, D. C. and Admiral Richard E. Byrd, who spoke from the South Pole, declared that in view of the high prices for which real estate is being sold in Palm Springs, the Indians here would benefit greatly if allotted their lands and allowed to sell them. To one of Storm's questions, asking if hotels are situated on the Indian reservation Coffman replied no and then added that the Indians rent the land for trailer parks and similar housing deriving an income of more than $100,000 annually.

WHEN THE PROGRAM began, Storm prefaced his questioning by announcing that the microphone was on the grounds of the famous Desert Inn, in Palm Springs. He continued by saying that widely carried news stories have told of the Indian reservation in the city limits of this desert resort and of the court action begun by Lee Arenas, member of the Agua Caliente

House Is Stolen,
Police Informed

Here's the latest.

In Palm Springs anything can happen.

It did.

A house was stolen. No fooling.

Of course, when you get right down to it, it was only a small affair, a model, built by Albert Frey, architect. It was two feet long, a foot wide and six inches high, according to report at the police station.

Architect Frey told police that the model house was stolen sometime between 8 a.m. and noon Wednesday from his home. He values it at $150.

WAA Chief Bans Use of Facilities

Chamber Is Asked to Underwrite Lease on Building Here

"Off again, on again, Finnegan" is the phrase being used by Harry Harper, manager of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce when talking about his attempts to obtain the use of the officer's club at the airfield.

And all of Harper's indignation as a result of the pushing around he has received centers around the head of Col. A. J. Read, with the Los Angeles branch of the War Assets administration.

WHEN THE CITY COUNCIL turned down the government's proposal of $150 for the monthly rental of the officers club, several fraternal and service organizations came to Harper and asked him to enlist the aid of the chamber in obtaining a lease on the building.

As a result, during more than a month of negotiations one day Col. Read would ask that the chamber comply with this and that regulation and if done, it would get the officers' club. This occurred on several occasions and each time, according to Harper, Mr. Read would ask for the performance of other requirements and the filing of still other applications.

IN THE MEANTIME the Los Compadres club, which wanted to use the building, were refused and the Jewish Ladies' group, with a dinner-dance scheduled for February 21, were assured that they would be able to use the building and went ahead with the printing of tickets and advertising. But Col. Read changed his mind and decided that no one but the city can obtain a month to month lease of the property.

Reached by telephone, Col. Read declared that the government is not in the "one-night" rental business of its surplus properties. He added that if he allowed one group to use it, he would be forced to let others do the same.

"Why," he asked, "doesn't the City of Palm Springs lease the building? I have permission from Washington to lease it to the city right now."

AS A RESULT of this statement a movement got under way in the city yesterday to guarantee that the city would not lose a cent if it went ahead with the lease.

Registration Drive to Start on Monday

The Oxen Train

(Recalling the early days of the desert, "Conky Conkwright", pioneer desert radio commentator, submitted this article on the old oxen train which used to pass through the Village many years ago. It's a story of the desert the way it used to be—before people discovered that the desert was a most healthful place in which to live. Ed. Note.)

These are some of the questions that will be asked of residents in the Village by members of the Palm Springs Lions club who will launch a five-day campaign to increase the voting registration here starting Monday, February 11, and ending Friday, the 21st of this month.

THE CAMPAIGN slogan of the drive has been named the "Registration for Better Citizenship."

Charles Mathews who is chairman of the "Better Citizenship committee" of the Lion club announced that the drive to register voters is definitely non-political with the main purpose of the five-day campaign aimed at arousing greater interest in the people of the community.

"Through this registration campaign," Mathews declared, "it may be possible to establish a greater permanent population record, which will bring greater benefits from county and state distribution."

HE SAID that tables, chairs, and attendants will be stationed in the Bank of America, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. throughout the five day registration drive, and in front of the post office from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. each day. At the same time, Mathews pointed out, Mrs. Louise McCarn, city clerk and deputy registrar, will be at the city hall to register applicants.

Assisting in the drive from the Lions club are Francis F. Crocker, Armand Turonnet, Howard Purdew, Gordon Feekings and Everett Lille. The list of co-workers from the Woman's club is not available at this time.

MRS. BILLIE BEHNEMAN speaking in her capacity as president of the Woman's club and Harold Hicks, president of the Lions club, wish the public to know that their sole interest in this campaign is the betterment of the community in bringing the need for registration home to all eligible voters.

Heads of both organizations declared that by registering as a voter, a person not only helps himself but the community in which he lives.

Great Musical Program Planned for Benefit Tea

Sales Tax . . .

in the way of making this town a better place in which to live. I used to live in a trailer here at one time and enjoyed the life. Ten thousand more people are coming here and let's get ready for them."

C. S. (CAP) BASSETT, speaking against the tax, pointed out that trailerites live in Palm Springs from 8 to 12 months a year and are good citizens of this community.

"A good number of them are the working people of this town," declared Bassett, "and they can't shoulder any more taxes than they are paying now. Many of them are servicemen seeking homes here and intend to build," he added. "I went on to say that these people spend from three to five million dollars a year with merchants in the city.

OTHERS WHO SPOKE against the tax were John H. Flint, Charley Knupp, electrical contractor; R. H. Hubbell and Los Angeles attorney Rembert M. Trezevant.

Among those who spoke in behalf of the tax, declaring that the city fathers should be supported in their improvement plan was Harold Hicks, president of the Palm Springs Water Company; Leo Baker, grocer; Hubbell, who finally ended upon the side of those in favor of the tax; K. Arkalian, home owner; Mrs. Mary Lou Whitehouse, dye store proprietor; Andre Nixon and Merril Crockett, druggist. Frank Partridge, photographer, declared that $10 in taxes was not too much to pay in the way of taxes for the privilege of living in Palm Spring.

BY THE TIME everybody was through talking and City Manager Alworth finished explaining the reason for the tax, the undercurrent of feeling which pervaded the packed auditorium indicated that most of the opposition had been overcome.

Many of those who spoke in opposition learned for the first time that the tax would parallel the taxation of such items as is now taxed by the State of California. This revelation and the outline of the program by Alworth swung opponents to the side of those in favor of the ordinance.

ALWORTH POINTED OUT that 48 cities in the state are using a sales tax to enable cities to function and improve their ways of life. Among them were Colton, Redlands and San Bernardino with a one-cent tax. Ontario, Uplands, Rialto and Los Angeles with one-half cent.

"These cities have found the sales tax the most equitable form of taxation," Alworth said.

Inquiry at the city hall indicated that the Orchard Trailer Camp is situated on Indian Reservation and operated by Leo Arenas. Under the federal law an Indian cannot be taxed for any improvements on his property. Aside from the personal property tax imposed on trailerites by the county, the city derives no other income from those living on Indian land.

IT WAS FURTHER LEARNED that due to the large areas of Indian land within the city limits, road construction, sewers and other facilities cost more because rights-of-ways must of necessity follow routes along the edge of these Indian owned sections of land.

To bring the city up to the standards of other communities the size of Palm Springs and in anticipation of what may be necessary several years hence, Alworth carefully outlined the needs of Palm Springs and to what use the revenue from the sales tax would be put.

FIRST OF ALL he declared that the need for fire hydrants to give adequate protection would cost $5000. A branch fire station at the south end of town, $20, and $15,000 for the equipment. Under parks and recreation was included a swimming pool, approximately 40 feet by 60, estimated to cost $60,000; six tennis courts at a cost of $21,000; wading pool for children, $2000; baseball and softball diamonds, archery ranges, shuffle-board field and other similar facilities for such sports at $10,000.

The cost of sewer extension, including the job of connecting the present sewage system with the one the Army is allowing the city to use, $40,000. Rehabilitation of streets, repairs and rights of way, storm drains and construction of culverts other than those to be built by the county flood control department and including the widening of Indian avenue has been placed at a cost of $60,000.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS including city offices, maintenance yards, additions to the present police department, $134,600. This part of the program would suffice, the city manager said for several years. An 18-hole golf course, sorely needed here, figured in the future plan at a cost of $120,000.

The estimated cost of the entire program amounts to $617,600, with construction to take place stration was staged by Fire Chief Gordon and Emil Greener for the information and interest of residents of the town.

A huge oil blaze was put out almost instantly by the use of a chemical hand extinguisher. The new applicators and fog nozzles were demonstrated by the volunteer fire fighters and various hand extinguishers were shown the spectators by Joe Holmes, manager of the Snowdon Chemical Company, 7604 South Avalon Boulevard, Los Angeles. He advised everybody to own some type of fire extinguisher.

From the information obtained on these sheets it is expected that a city directory can be compiled and an index file started.

THE SANITATION question is acute, the money not being forthcoming to maintain the present system through the summer. Drivers of cars are breaking the most fundamental safety rules in driving and parking along the business district, and speeding through town, are becoming a dangerous hazard with so many school children crossing the highway.

IN THE NAME of members of the Southern California Automobile Club it is hoped that an appeal to the head office may bring some help from the traffic officers of the State Highway Patrol, and also obtain from the club stop signs, and removal of the "25 mile speed" zone sign from the center to the outskirts of town.

With these projects in mind will you all co-operate by giving us statistics with which to work?

Unincorporated areas stand no chance of getting what they need unless they are organized with every person possible a registered voter in the district.

As guests from Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Russ Barclay have been entertaining Mrs. Gene O'Connor, with her two children, Diane, 6, and Roberta, 9, who are attending the local school for a few months while they look around the home.

SPOTS Before Your Eyes

By BILL RASHALL

Silly the subject men will argue about sometimes.

One that provoked considerable discussion was the statement by one who claimed he had made a study of the subject, was that introverts are generally inclined to the use of pipes and that few extroverts use them. As usual, nobody was convinced that either side of the debate won.

REMEMBER the discussion the other night, when Arnold L. Ogden, chairman of Alfred Dunhill of London Incorporated, sat dining in the Bombay with his lovely wife, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph D'Alessio and Attorney and Mrs. Aaron W. Berg of New York City.

Now, if anybody should know the answer to the question, certainly Mr. Ogden should. His company has sold millions of pipes in this country for more millions in dollars. Nevertheless, he pondered the query for a long time before answering and then came up with a statement.

HE DENIED that introverts are the greatest users of pipes.

"Why," Mr. Ogden said "Many Englishmen smoke pipes and I would say that just as many extroverts as introverts in Britain use the stem and bowl."

He added however, that men who are deep or profound thinkers are the greatest users of pipes. Ogden pointed out that the habit of smoking a briar with many men started in college. In the same category he placed doctors, lawyers and other professional men. It was nevertheless the opinion, that Mr. Ogden's statement favored the thought that introverts are still the best customers for pipes.

IN THE MANUFACTURE of pipes here are a few notes little known in this smoking world: The best burls are cultivated and come from Algiers, Greece and the Balkan states. Of a shipment of 500 pounds of the burls, Dunhill, Incorporated, generally get about 25 pounds of the stuff satisfactory for the manufacture of the type of pipes to which that concern will attach its trademark. Mr. Ogden said that the most expensive pipe is the one with straight grains in the finished burl and of the many Dunhill manufactures in a year, only 20 to 25 are found. These sell at prices ranging from $100 to $150 a piece. Charley Farrell, out Racquet Club way, is the possessor of such a pipe. In addition to pipes and lighters Ogden's company here in the United States sells, pipe-tobacco imported from England, cigars from Cuba, and have launched forth in the sale of cosmetics for women.

IF YOU HAVE never met that genial fellow Dave Lyons, manager of Mr. Dee's, you've got a treat in store for you—that is, if you like people. The other night he played host to Eddie Small and wife, of Small Productions, Archie Mayo, motion picture producer and John Black, famed Chicago attorney.

Dave certainly can make his guests feel right at home. Got a new game there too—at least in this country—English darts. Never knew there was so much technique in the art of throwing a dart. There's no charge for the use of those fancy feathered spears and board, imported all the way from England for the guests of Mr. Dee's. Try it sometime, you'll be fascinated.

NO DISTINCTION

"Yes, son," said the man of the house, "When I was your age I was next highest in my grade."

"Don't take that too seriously," sighed mother, "your father went to a little red schoolhouse and there were only two pupils in his class."

SPORTSMANSHIP

By sportsmanship, I mean the idea of playing the game according to the rules, allowing every man his fair chance of winning, if he has got the stuff, and accepting defeat in good spirit if the game goes against you.

increased when the census figures are released in 1950.

THE LEGISLATOR declared that a sales tax was the most popular method of raising money for needed improvements among the cities of California. He said that the property owners were carrying the high taxation load but that a sales tax would reach an additional 1,000,000 more people.

"The most popular levy," Boyd said, was one-half of one per cent but many cities collect one cent."

He warned that the amount of the sales tax to be imposed should be governed by the experience of the state in the collection of its sales tax.

"The state has collected during good business years," said Boyd, "as much as $200,000,000. However, when business fell off the fluctuation amounted to between 25 and 60 million dollars."

WITH REFERENCE to the hospital bill amounting to $75,000,000 in federal money to create additional beds, Palm Springs would benefit to the extent of $2,000,000 if the state supplied an equal amount for the first and second millions dollars of federal money given the state.

Boyd said that Community hospitals under the present form of the bill in the state could not participate. However, the lawmaker said he was introducing a constitutional amendment that would allow such hospitals to participate.

Another bill he plans to introduce has to do with the rights of labor to work in spite of strikes, to pass through picket lines without the threat of violence.

JOE BAILEY, president of the Desert Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce, made his first appearance at the co-ordinating committee luncheon. Miss Katherine Finch, superintendent of the Desert School district and Dr. E. Oertel, principal of the Palm Springs Union high school made separate pleas for the support of the school bonds to be voted upon February 25.

GALLANT THOUGHT

While we will neither affirm nor deny it, there are many who believe that a certain Southern judge won the favor of feminine voters and, incidentally, his recent election because of certain small but important considerations he shows the fair sex while conducting the business of his court.

One day recently he caused a certain young lady to give slight evidence in a case which did not seem at all necessary.

"Judge," he was asked later, "was it really necessary to place Miss Day on the stand yesterday?"

"No, it wasn't," admitted the judge, "but I saw she had a new hat, and was anxious to show it off. So I just helped her do it!"

Today's version: Make a better mousetrap and the people who try to beat a path to your door will be halted by pickets.—Progressive Grocer.

Victory Dance is Held as Indians Win Last Contest

The Junior dance held after the basketball game became the Victory Dance which was well-timed for the last basketball game of the season which was won by the Palm Springs High Indians on that night.

The decorating and dance committee decorated the auditorium in pink and black crepe paper, using those colors as the theme. Those on the committee were: Joy Arakelian, Billy Jo Henry, Marilyn Ellsworth, Marianne Slocum, and Jill Norris. For the surprise of the evening was a game of musical chairs in which eight couples competed, the winner of the game and receiver of the prize was Pat Warren, who was given the record, "Open the Door Richard", which was presented by Richard Henson.

Senior Assembly Presented Friday at High School

The "20's" or the "Age of Our Parents" was the theme of the senior class assembly presented to the student body Thursday.

The curtain opened with Jim Searls, M.C., introducing what he termed "Medieval folk dances" of the period. Three couples demonstrated how the past generation danced the "Charleston". These couples were Barry Wiler and Phyllis Renville, Ralph Woodward and Diane Heller, and Vivian Gautello with Chuck St. George.

THE NEXT SCENE was a barber shop in which Jim Searls, Barry Miller, Don Whitehead and Chuck St. George comprised a barbershop quartet. Tom Griffith, seductive beauty, attracted the attention of the barber shop set as well as the audience. The quartet sang "Sweet Adeline" and "The Animal Fair".

The program was concluded with an old time silent film, with Jim Searls, Harry Hanbury, Paula Kay Hayward and Tony Jupe supplying the sound effects. Many members of the audience were heard to comment how much they enjoyed the assembly. This is the first class assembly given this year. The juniors will be the next to present an assembly, their assigned date being March 6.

High School Band Makes Hit With Its Swing Music

On of the most active groups at Palm Springs high school these days is the swing band under direction of Gustave Patzner, long experienced in conducting swing and other orchestras.

Barry Miller, a fine trumpet player, is manager and the band has played for many local parties and dances.

Art Jurado, an experienced musician, is in charge of the saxophone section and he is assisted by Bob Salazar and Ben Prieto.

THE TRUMPET section are Art Smith, John Harp and Barry Miller. Arlene Joseph has proven an excellent trumpet player. The other girl in the band is Pat Fowler, vocalist.

The most versatile of these musicians is Dick Hensen. He plays the bass with a jazzy beat and also the clarinet, saxophone, trumpet and trombone. He is accomplished, too, at the piano and with drums.

ON THE DRUMS and doing a great job is Charles St. George. He has had some experience professionally and produces the needed rhythm.

Besides providing entertainment for high school social events, the band has played for American Legion and DeMolay dances.

Valentine Dance Tomorrow Night at Desert Inn

A Valentine dance will be given Friday, February 14, in the high school auditorium. A great deal of work is being done for the preparation of this dance by the junior class.

There are several committees in charge, they are: Bonnie Sue Taylor and Shirley Renville, poster committee; Kenneth Youngs, Bonnie Sue Taylor and Shirley Renville, refreshment committee; Marilyn Ellsworth and Jill Norris, musical entertainment. The other committees are still being organized.

The dance will be semi-formal with a door prize given to the cutest couple.

HOW CAN I HELP?

No American can read the eye-witness accounts of the extermination chambers which the Nazis left behind them as they fled from Poland, Rumania and other lands without experiencing not only a shudder of horror, but also a determination to snatch those who can still be reached from the death house of Europe. Tens of thousands of Jewish children have been left orphaned, physically and psychologically mutilated. Those who are in Palestine have been almost miraculously rehabilitated. The most important factor in this unique program is the abounding love, the warm and motherly affection with which every child is surrounded in his new home. Rehearsals for Operetta Get Into Full Swing

If you were living in some middle western state and if it were autumn and the leaves had fallen and it looked like rain I will warn you that decayed autumn leaves against a wet sidewalk can be the cause of a fatal skid. But because you live in California or the desert and the leaves are not falling and it is not raining I will give you another warning. If you ask Dawn Okerland who she's looking for and she says "Father" and if you ask her what her father's name is and she says Joe and if you say your name is Joe she will promptly scream "Father", fly into your arms and reward you with a hearty embrace. I wonder if those are the tactics one certain Senior boy uses. (We will not mention his name because he would probably get mad and spit bees.)

Since Berry Miller, Whitehead, Tom and St. George sang in the assembly last week everybody has been singing the monk the monk. I wonder which one of the boys they have in mind as they sing those sweet sentimental words. Very Touching!

Licenses Now Chief Objective

GLEEFULLY galavanting hither and thither at the ball game Friday were various people of renown. Because it was the last basketball game of the season everyone was in a fighting mood. And boy, did we win that game. The score was 69 to 16—something to really yell about. Dates were Virginia Miller and Chuck St. George, John Klug and Carol Burkett, Bonnie Sue and Dick Henson, Mary Katherine and Earl Ray, Nancy Nye and Jim Wills and several others but most of the kids (baby goats again) were lone rangers for the evening. There was Jimmy Flynn, Brady, Red Tompkins, Johnny, Chuck Stone, Jo Wilkes, Jeanette Oftenthun and others.

Just as Henson was leading one of his famous yells Chuck Stone got one of his famous ideas and threw Nancy's shoes down on the basketball court. Henson tossed the shoes calmly in his megaphone and continued courageously.

Vickey Mattloff and still others were there.

IT WAS REALLY a panic on the way home on the bus. Was Nancy blushing or was it a wind burn? Jim was nicknamed Wind for the night and Nancy really put her foot in her mouth.

Searles cracked a funny too. Audry turned a rather gaudy shade of purple but it was still a laugh.

Pat Fowler and Danny Larson had a good time too. Casanova Danny we call him.

Bonnie Sue didn't say anything at all on the way home. She was sawing wood. Whitehead tried to get some sleep too but Don Williams' feet managed to get in his way always at the wrong time. Was it the size of Don's feet or could it have been that Whitehead was half on the floor? Maybe both!

Saturday night Virginia Miller and Chuck St. George, Dawn and Fern threw a private little party of their own.

ALSO SATURDAY Candi and Ed Wills had a date. Maybe they had their own private little party too. Don't rightly know.

Sunday night found Dawn and Fern side by side in the cinema, Jeanette and Johnny, Mary Katherine and Earl Ray.

My mind is sadly at a loss, my friends, so I think I shall bring this sad epistle to a close. Maybe I'll be back in the groove again by next week as if I ever was.

MOVIES TONIGHT — Tonight, Friday, February 14, three movies will be unreeled in the El Paseo theatre at 8 o'clock. These films include: "Know Your Ally—Britain" (An official orientation movie); "Freedom Rides on Rubber" (in color, showing how synthetic rubber is made); and "The Atacama Desert", of southern Peru and Chile. Doors open at 7.

JOHN HILTON SPEAKER — "Unknown Sinaloa, Mexico" will be the title of an illustrated talk to be given this Saturday night, February 15, at 8 o'clock by John Hilton, mineralogist and artist who operates a gem shop near Thermal and who is widely known from his many articles in Desert Magazine. In this lecture, Mr. Hilton will tell of people he met in this remote region who had never heard of Hitler, or even knew that there had been a war! Mr. Hilton also recently appeared band of Mission Indians in an attempt to have some of this land declared personal rather than tribal property.

"This legal action now awaits a Supreme court ruling," said Storm. Here in this plush winter playground of the nation a favorite spot for Hollywood's radio and movie stars, the land is valuable."

DO MOST of the Indians want allotments with the right to sell or lease?" questioned Storm. "They are divided on that. Some would get more valuable plots than others. These, of course want them, but the others prefer that it stay tribal."

The rest of the script reads as follows:

Storm: "To get the view of the business people of Palm Springs, NBC has called on Earl Coffman, civic leader, who for years was chairman of the chamber of commerce Indian Affairs committee. Mr. Coffman, how is this matter looked upon?"

Coffman: "Well, contrary to recent headlines, it's not a case of giving Palm Springs back to the Indians. The Southern Pacific railroad came through this country in 1872 and there has been a white settlement here since 1884. The reservation was not created until 1891."

Storm: "Are any hotels on the Indian lands?"

Coffman: "None at all. However the Indians now rent land for trailer parks and for similar housing, for which they receive an income of more than $100,000 annually."

Storm: "Your family pioneered here, didn't it?"

Coffman: "That's right. My mother started today's Desert Inn in 1909 with a half dozen tent houses."

Storm: "Then as a long-time observer do you—and other permanent residents here—feel it best for the Indians to be able to dispose of land as they see fit?"

Coffman: "Here's the answer. Real estate prices are high, two thousand dollars a front foot along Palm Canyon Drive. It seems a good time for the Indians to take advantage of the high values now obtaining in this foremost desert resort. But in the Indians' own interest, let the government assist them in getting the most possible and then let it assist them in handling the money for their benefit."

Real Estate Course To Start February 19

The third session of the Real Estate School will open in San Bernardino on Wednesday evening, February 19, at 7:15 p.m., at the Skadron College of Business, corner Fourth and H streets, Telephone 331-32. The college was established in 1907.

Men and women will be trained for the State Examination for a broker's or salesman's license in eight weeks. The class will meet every Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. The course will be instructed by Mr. Ferris E. Wilkinson, licensed Real Estate Broker and Title Officer of the Security Title Insurance and Guarantee Company. Mr. Wilkinson is well-known in real estate circles, having had twenty years' experience in real estate, title insurance and escrow work.

The training will consist of practical instruction on conveyancing, the legal effect of deeds, mortgages, land contracts, and leases; land economics, ethics, escrows, principal and agent, real estate practice, real estate law, G.I. Loans, new construction, mathematics and salesmanship. In addition, there will be lectures by outstanding real estate men who are authorities in their field. One session will be devoted on how to get started in the real estate business and at the end of the course a test similar to the State Examination will be given.

Students who have previously taken this course have successfully passed their examinations and are now actively engaged in the Real Estate Business. This course will prove valuable to those who wish to qualify for the State Examination, practicing salesmen and brokers who wish additional training and others who desire a knowledge of real estate for their own business. There will be a reasonable tuition fee, which can be paid in installments.

Prospective students are invited by the Skadron College to attend the opening session on Feb. 19 without charge or obligation. Application blanks will be available for those who wish to apply for the State Examination.

Ever See a Camel Run? Indio Plans Series of Races

Camel races, the All-Year Club revealed today, are being added to Southern California's bill-of-fare for Winter tourists' entertainment.

They will be held each day of the Riverside County Fair and Date Festival at Indio, February 20-23, to put trimmings on the atmosphere of the Coachella Valley date-raising country which is known in the southland's travel lore as the "Arabia of America."

FOUR RACING dromedaries have been acquired from a Hollywood movieland animal outfit. Hump jockeys will be local Indio men costumed in flowing versions of an Arabian desert jockey outfit.

An arena, 250 by 125 feet, is being prepared for the races. They will be held during the afternoon program, which starts at 1:30 p.m. The first day's race will be in connection with the crowning of the winning beauty in a contest among Riverside county towns, as the date festival's Queen Scheherazade. Next three days' camel races will highlight the horse show.

BEST OF THE CROP from Coachella Valley's date palm oases, which grow most of America's date output, will be displayed, together with other exhibits of the county's agriculture and industry.

Buildings and attendants' costumes are Arabian.

From Head to Toe

By BARBARA K. SCHILLY

Though we may like to consider ourselves of 1947 quite ultra modern . . . with sleek look, stark line and all that . . . it seems that our men and unconsciously ourselves have not quite caught up completely with this idea yet and that we are still often times disposed toward frills, ribbons, lace and such.

Consequently . . . as we do have to please the men in our lives and the little girls in ourselves . . . a few fluffy frilly things continue to show up now and then and when they do . . . they make more of a sensation than ever, due to their comparative rarity.

OUR PIQUANT outfit pictured above was shown at Roma's fashion show the other day and made quite a sensation . . . just because it was so quaint and sweet and so unusual for a play suit. We cannot quite imagine a sophisticated New Yorker gal in it . . . but can't you just imagine it on a "honey chile" type girl just the thing.

Princess style bathing and sun suits are gaining popularity which are feminine looking of course . . . especially when a few peplums, swallow-tails, bows and ribbons are added. No, they are not particularly functional and we agree that they look much better when lounging on a deck chair or sun mat than when in the actual process of swimming . . . but if in a coy and cute mood . . . there can be nothing cuter or coyer.

PUFFED SLEEVES are making great hits on many play suits as are flounces, ruffled necklines and the Can-Can girl is in there pitching offering her flirtatious fluffy skirts . . . all this of course on bathing and play outfit.

Remember, say 15 years ago, when all well dressed little girls wore bloomers and dresses that matched . . . the bloomers coming to the knees . . . the dress several inches above to allow full view of the panties? Well, shorten the bloomers about 8 inches and the dress as much . . . make the dress a sunback style and you have one of the latest "little girl" play suits.

Of course the diaper style is already well worn and well received . . . which all goes to show us that we just do not grow up . . . however . . . what is wrong with that . . . for who really wants to.

TAHQUITZ FALLS TRIP.

Highlight of the Tahquitz Falls nature walk conducted by the museum last Saturday was the hearing of the song of a Canyon Wren. New plants seen on the trip included the Thornbush (Lycium) which is now in full bloom, and the Torrey Eucrypta, also much in evidence along the trail. The group of 40 persons continued up the trail on the left side of the canyon, crossed the stream at the falls, and returned on the more difficult right side. Two women over 80 years old made the trip in stride. The field trip this Saturday will be an all-day one to Hidden Springs by the Salton Sea.

Thousand Palms On Air Map With New Port Opened

By CARLOS O'DUAL

William Mims, former wartime pilot, has opened a private airport in the rapidly developing new townsite and residential area of Thousand Palms. The new airport already has a blacktop strip of over two thousand feet length, a water well developed and numerous other physical alterations of the raw desert.

Plans for the development include a unique airmotel catering to pilots almost exclusively. The developer believes that the conventional facilities will prove wholly inadequate when flying becomes more popular after mass production of private planes is a fact. Plans of the development include both service of hotel and mechanical services together with a novel type of hangar protection for over-night planes.

The creator also believes that pilots require an atmosphere of understanding for their particular needs and services.

Mr. Sims comes to his undertaking with an unusual background of long years in aviation. As with most seasoned pilots before the war he was a typical barnstormer for a period of his life, and instructor later and during the war for four years flew the south Pacific in the famous unarmed Pacific Overseas Transport. This organization, little known to the general public, followed MacArthur from Australia the whole circuit up to Japan, furnishing supplies to the most advanced outposts of MacArthur's fighters.

THE SHIPS having had more trouble with inexperienced hands experimenting with tail guns, blowing off portions of the transport's tails and otherwise endan-

Letters to the Editor

ON PARKING AND BENCHES

Editor, The Sun: We have been reading in your paper of a suggestion or plan to take the parking spaces off of Palm Canyon drive. Where would they park the cars then? Is this to be done so the large tankers, lumber trucks, fruit trucks, freight lines, etc. can race through town, better make the old plan come true and put a good wide highway through from Araby point or there about and stay out east of the high school, join with present highway out north of town some place, don't wait until all that part of the desert is built up though before starting the road. Then let the tourists and residents get a little good from our only two streets and parking spaces. Also put the benches back along the sidewalks so shoppers and sight-seers may relax and enjoy the sun. After all, it is nice to sit down and rest without having either to go in a bar or drugstore and buy a drink, even a drinking fountain for humans would be appreciated. We do have a dog fountain.

Public tennis court, swimming pools, a nice park. We thought that was what the Field Club was bought for.

While asking for things, how about a walkway (white lines) from the post office across Indian avenue before someone is killed. This at least would only cost a little time and paint.

Christian Science Lesson Topic 'Soul'

"My soul shall be joyful in the Lord; it shall rejoice in his salvation." This statement of the Psalmist will be the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Soul" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

Luke's Gospel relates that John Baptist sent unto Jesus, "saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another? And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight. Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached. And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me."

On this subject Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Knowing that Soul and its attributes were forever manifested through man, the Master healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, feet to the lame, thus bringing to light the scientific action of the divine Mind on human minds and bodies and giving a better understanding of Soul and salvation."

C. E. Members at Conference in Mountains

A large group of young people of the Senior Christian Endeavor society of Community church attended a Bible conference at Forest Home in Mill Creek canyon. They were supervised by the Rev. and Mrs. James Blackstone. They were supervised by the homes of Dr. J. R. Macartney, pastor of the church, Miss Katherine Finchy and Miss Nancy Nye. This coming weekend the Blue Nightingales and Junior Singers, two of the church's choirs, will enjoy an outing at Forest Home. The groups are under the supervision of Holly Lash Visel who once a month provides an outing for them.

1847 — 1947

The gold rush was on... the Pony Express set a record from Missouri to Carson City in only 8½ days and the smartest drawing rooms in New York were lighted by gas or oil lamps. Into this America Thomas Edison was born, destined by his genius to bring it into its golden age of invention.

Aside from harnessing electric power for lighting the world, his experiments and inventions did more to raise the standards of living than anything since the Industrial Revolution.

While the electrical world is a focal point for celebrations of his 100th birthday, every man, woman and child should pause and pay homage to the man who has made living easier and more enjoyable in every way.

WORLD WARS MEMORIAL BUILDING

Owen B. Coffman

Post 519, Inc.

Palm Springs, California

MEMORIAL—Architect John Clark's sketch of proposed Owen B. Coffman Post, American Legion, World Wars Memorial to be built on site on Belardo Road.

You can have a part in assuring this beautiful Memorial Building for Palm Springs both as a living and useful tribute to the men and women who gave their lives that you might enjoy the happiness of peace, and as an auditorium that will fill a critical need in Palm Springs.

The Owen Coffman Post of the American Legion is conducting a campaign to raise the remaining portion of the anticipated cost to permit construction during the spring and summer. This would make possible opening the building for use by the nearly 500 servicemen and women in Palm Springs, and by the public next fall.

Its auditorium will seat between 600 and 800 persons and provide banquet space for more than 350. This would permit Palm Springs to invite dozens of convention groups who would like to hold meetings in our famed Village but are prevented from doing so now by the lack of adequate quarters.

As a central meeting place, clubhouse and recreation center for the men and women who served their country in the World Wars the building will be of inestimable value. To those men and women who lie buried in heroes' graves throughout the world the building will be an enduring expression of the gratitude of the people of Palm Springs.

If you have not contributed to this worthy cause won't you please mail your check today to WORLD WARS MEMORIAL FUND, P. O. Box 339, Palm Springs. Every dollar brings this memorial closer to realization. You will be proud to have had a part in its construction, and the men and women who served you so faithfully and loyally in the great conflicts will be forever grateful.

Next Art Show

Start Feb. 16

The next art exhibit at the Welwood Murray Memorial Library will start February 16 and will be a joint showing of the work of Dorothy Brown and William Bowne.

Dorothy Brown is an exhibiting painter currently represented in California Water Color Society Show at the Pasadena Art Institute, and has also exhibited in the San Francisco Museum of Art, the Oakland Museum and the showing of the National Water Color Exhibition in San Diego. She has won awards in shows at Redlands, the Thomas Jefferson Gallery and the American Contemporary Gallery of Los Angeles.

He is currently represented in the campus Faculty show as well as the exhibition now being held in the Oakland Museum. He has exhibited in both of these galleries several times previously and also in San Francisco and Los Angeles. In December the University held a one-man show of his work in the University Gallery.

School Needs

(Below appears the second installment answering questions on the proposed Desert School district bond issue to be voted Feb. 25. The district is asking voters to approve a $750,000 issue to provide much-needed room for expansion. The first article in the series appeared in Tuesday's issue.—Ed. Note.)

5. Will the addition of these classrooms be an adequate building program for the initial program?

No. There are other essential room requirements other than classrooms, such as cafeteria accommodations, offices, libraries, music rooms, recreation rooms, nurse's rooms, teachers' rooms, arts and crafts centers, etc.

6. What then is the proposed initial building program?

It is proposed to build sufficient classrooms to take care of the next three year expectancy, and by doing so accomplish the following benefits: (a) Take advantage of savings resulting from building more at one time instead of less at three different times. (b) Be prepared for growth beyond normal expectations so that we will not be caught short. (c) Have the use of additional classrooms for auxiliary purposes listed above until more reasonable building costs can be realized.

7. Is there a long term building plan proposed for the elementary schools?

Yes. Following is a proposed pattern for the ultimate development of elementary school plants of the Desert School District: 12 classrooms—2 each grades 1-6, Kindergarten, Library-museum, Arts and Crafts center, Play-ground center, Multi-purpose rooms: Recreation room (size of 3 or 4 classrooms) to be used for assemblies, indoor P. E. activities, community recreation, etc.

Cafeteria (Kitchen with dining room at either end) Primary dining room used also for vocal and instrumental music. Intermediate dining room used also for Home-making and other school activities.

Principals office and guidance room, nurse's room (also used for pupil restroom), teachers room (women-men), supply and work room, Covered bus ramp for loading and unloading children, school site—10 acres, grounds surfaced.

Desert Masons to Institute Lodge
In Palm Springs

Masons of Palm Springs are organizing a lodge, which will be instituted in the Banning lodge hall early in April.

Some years ago, the Palm Springs Masonic club purchased a lot in that desert community, having in mind the construction of a Masonic Temple whenever a Masonic lodge is established there. Until the time when a temple can be completed there, the new lodge will rent a hall and lodge room. Plans are for a very imposing structure.

Most of the members of the new Palm Springs lodge have been members of San Gorgonio lodge in Banning, and are now withdrawing from the local lodge. They have been very active in local lodge circles, a number of them served as officers. William Leoniosi of that city was worshipful master of this lodge last year.

BE EXPLICIT

Many years ago when Gov. David B. Hill was practicing law he had a case where Mr. Evart was his opponent. Hill was delivering his maiden speech. Like many young lawyers he was florid, rhetorical and tiresomely lengthy. For several weary hours he talked to the court and the jury. When he got through Mr. Evart deliberately arose, looked at the judge and said, "I will follow this example of my young friend who has just finished, and submit the case without argument."

FAIR WARNING

For some years now, a matron we know has patronized a dress-making shop on the West Side run by an imperious and capable Spanish lady. Our friend had an uneasy moment or two last Friday when she received from this place of business a chillingly laconic announcement: "Persons leaving a coat or dress for more than thirty days will be sent to Europe."—The New Yorker.

Everything connected with a coconut palm tree is usable; leaves and trunks are used for houses, the husk around the nut shell yields a fiber, the milk is a cooling drink, the meat is food; when the meat is dried it becomes copra, a source of oil.

That Ring Around the Bathtub

Jeb Crowell blew his top the other day. Seems that for weeks he's been trying to get his youngsters to scrub out the bathtub after using it. And this night he sees two rings around it—one where young Sonny left off, and another about Pinky's level.

He raves and rants—and takes it out on the missus for her lack of discipline. And later that evening he sees her quietly polishing the hardwood table that's right by his chair. She's removing the rings he's left there with his evening glass of beer!

"I Rise to Remark"

BY CONGRESSMAN JOHN PHILLIPS

The Congress is beginning to operate like a smoother-running machine, so far as its committee work is concerned. This may not be what you read in the propaganda columns. These boys complain, I see, that the Republicans have been here a month, and haven't yet corrected all the troubles of the past decade. I've been here for five opening Congresses, and it has usually been six weeks before we got going.

The reorganization, the fewer committees, the end of duplications and multiple committee memberships, have already improved our work. Bills are moving along and soon will be on the floor. I begin to think we may really make the adjournment of July 1st. The shorter time a legislative body is in session, the fewer headaches for the people generally. It is usually in those dragging weeks, towards the end, when members are tired, that poorer legislation is apt to be enacted.

I wrote last week about committee appointments for the California delegation. This week I report, with enthusiasm, the improved coordination in the delegation. As one Los Angeles paper put it, "The voters took care of a number of the prima donnas last year, and the veterans and the new members have made it obvious that they propose to place the welfare of California and the West above individual advantage." That is apparent. In the four years I've been here the largest delegation meeting we had was 17 members; usually the meetings had 8 or 9 present. The first regular meeting of the delegation this session brought out 21 of our 23 members and one of the absenteers was in California on committee business. I tired of seeing California pushed around by states which had delegations of two to four Congressmen. We have a well organized delegation now, under an able chairman, Welch of San Francisco.

One Congressman cut this bit of humor from a middle-west house-organ, and put it in the Record:

"Stay on the job and pay your taxes. The boys in the bureaus in Washington are counting on you."

I prefer the comment of the present chairman of the committee on appropriations:

"The elected representatives of the people must and will take charge of the spending of the people's money."

PENITENT

The Pullman Company humbly and gratefully reports: An Iowa woman returned a towel that was missing for 32 years. And a Massachusetts man sent along another which bore a 1910 date. The latter thoughtfully wrote:

"The world needs our highest integrity at this time."

I thought to tell you something of how the Appropriations committee works. That will wait. It seems like coming home to sit down and write, after so many years, about a budget again. You will be interested in the national budget. The President asked for about $37,500,000,000. That used to be considered a lot of money. That amount is FOUR TIMES the figure for 1939, and almost THREE TIMES the amount for 1940. Think that one over. 1940 was a war year; Winston Churchill was the "man of the year"; Denmark and Norway had fallen; the blitz; the war was coming, and we knew it. So the President asked for $13,200,000,000. 6½ billions covered all the regular departments. 1.6 billions for defense. 2½ BILLIONS FOR RELIEF.

Royal Arch Masons of Area Granted Right to Chapter

Royal Arch Masons of this district at last have realized their ambition to have their own chapter.

Led by the late Companion Carl Chandler of Banning, a small group of Royal Arch Masons, representing all the cities of eastern Riverside county, undertook the preliminary arrangements in May, 1946. Although Chandler was killed in December in a highway accident, the group presented their petition for a Dispensation to form a chapter in January, and Grand High Priest Roy J. Sheldon, of Fairfield, California, granted the Dispensation on Jan. 24, 1947.

THE CHAPTER, named the Desert Chapter, U.D.R.A.M., held their first stated meeting in the hall of San Gorgonio Lodge No. 668, F. & A.M., in Banning on Thursday, Feb. 6. A practice meeting will be held on Feb. 20, and the next regular stated meeting will be held in the same place on Thursday, Mar. 6, at 7:30 p.m.

Prospects for candidates are very good, and Royal Arch Masons, now living here, who are members in other states and districts, including former members of the old San Jacinto chapter, have shown their interest by asking for membership. All members admitted this first year will be registered as Charter Members.

OFFICERS serving the chapter during the first year while under Dispensation are as follows: W. E. R. Crawford, High Priest; Arthur B. Annis, King; Carl T. Loveless, Scribe; W. E. Viner, treasurer; M. E. Barry, secretary; Geo. M. Fox, Captain of the Host; William P. Leonios, Principal Sojourner; Ryland S. Pinckard, Royal Arch Captain; Howard H. Rhoads, Master of the Third Veil; Geo. D. Vaughn, Master of the Second Veil; M. T. Schilling, Master of the First Veil and R. W. Matthews, Sentinel.

A school of instruction will be held at the Redlands Masonic Temple on the evenings of Feb. 17 and 18, and all Royal Arch Masons are invited to attend.

Somebody is going to be driving this new Packard soon as a result of helping the young men and women of the Village in financing their Youth Center building, nearing completion on Bellardo Road. Help the youths complete their Center!

Palm Springs' finest and dearest possession is its Youth—and Palm Springs' future is a future that is bright and optimistic because of the young folks of the Village. We're all proud of them. But to help them become adults and citizens of the finest type—their surroundings and associations, their activities and recreations now depend much on the facilities we offer and provide them. The new Palm Springs Youth Center can be a powerful factor for good—and in aiding this important project—you can feel proud of any assistance you give toward making this ideal—this dream come true.

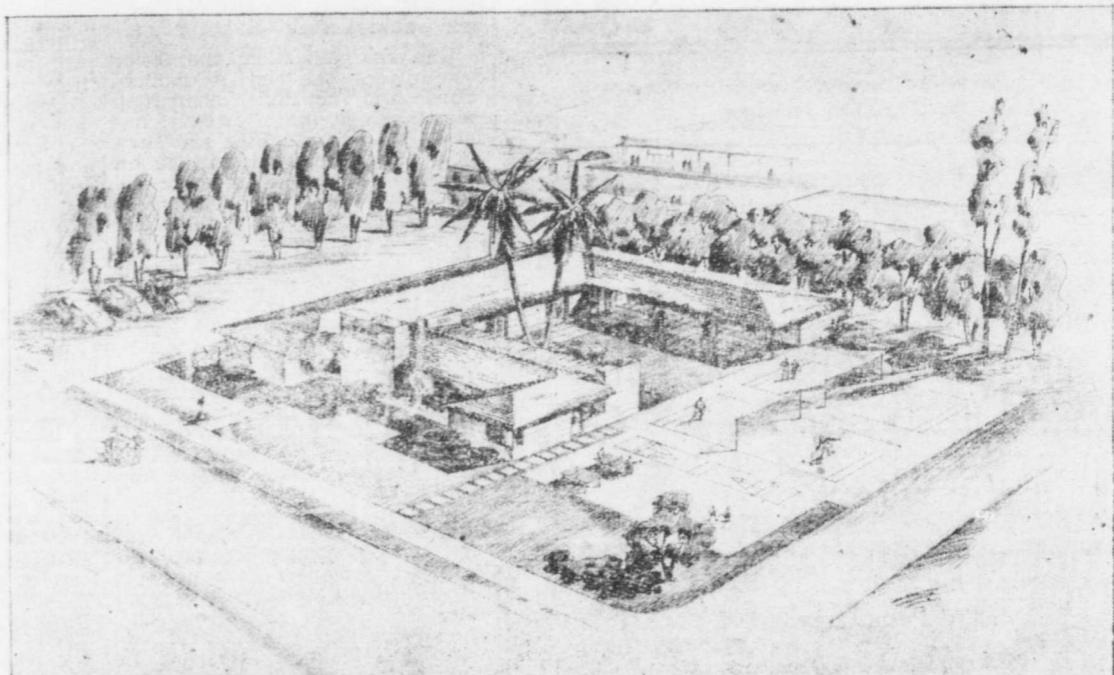

Here's the scene of a few weeks ago when ground was broken for the new Youth Center building. Now the building is nearing completion—but there's the item of money remaining. You can help by responding smilingly when the young men and women of the high school call for subscriptions. They need $10,000—and whatever you give will help.

Local Community Hospital Praised by Publisher's Widow

In deep appreciation of the service and kindness shown her husband, K. C. Hogate, publisher of the Wall Street Journal, who died at the Community Hospital Tuesday morning at 5:30 a. m., Mrs. Hogate wrote the following letter of thanks to the hospital.

The letter, addressed to Howard Jay, assisting in the administration of the hospital, read as follows:

"Dear Mr. Jay:

"I can't leave Palm Springs without dropping you a note to tell you that the sympathy, the care and the interest we had at the Community Hospital will never be forgotten.

"The comfort we had certainly was not in the furnishings. I have never seen so little. But it was an intangible something you must never lose and I think Miss Meyer in her warm personality, efficiency and ability to handle people is in great part responsible.

"Thank you so much. I wish you the best of luck in carrying out the plans for a new hospital when this building is no longer available.

"With kindest regards

"Sincerely,
ANNA S. HOGATE
(Mrs. Kenneth C.)"

Hospital Sounds SOS for Nurses and Help

Experienced Aid Needed Now, Says Institution Head

Are you a registered nurse?

If you are, powder your nose, put your nurse's cap and uniform on and hurry to the Palm Springs Community hospital where you will be greeted with open arms.

In addition to the dire need of nurses, Howard Jay, assisting in the administration of the hospital, is also asking for kitchen help, sorely needed.

JAY BROADCAST this appeal for help with the added statement that 28 patients lie acutely ill in the hospital and the present staff are working long and laborious hours in order to keep abreast of the work load.

"We haven't sufficient nurses," declared Howard, "and the hospital is way behind in its nursing job. Assistance is needed right now."

Mrs. William A. Lippman, head of the production department of the Palm Springs chapter of the American Red Cross is doing her utmost in supplying nurses aides from among the members of her organization. It is her hope to supply two members a day. At the same time she asked that anyone willing to help, call her or the hospital direct.

LAST WEEK Mrs. Virginia Farrell, Mrs. Paul Lucas, Miss Virginia Colville, Mrs. Leo Baker and Mariedna Borden volunteered for the work at the hospital and assisted materially in aiding the nurses.

"These women are to be highly praised for their civic effort," Jay said. "They performed the most menial tasks without one word of complaint," he added.

Jay who is spending long hours at the hospital, announced that good jobs are waiting to be filled by kitchen help. Standard pay rates prevail and in addition a merit and bonus plan is in existence.

HOUSING is provided for staff nurses and other permanent members of the hospital staff if desired.

The hospital, Jay said, has requests for nurses throughout Southern California.

Edward R. Bacon Asks Aid Be Given Local Boys' Club

Rear Admiral Ralph Wood, U.S.N. (Ret.), has been appointed resident manager of the multi-million dollar Borrego Springs resort-community development, it was announced today by Robert Ransom of the Borrego Springs company.

Admiral and Mrs. Wood are residing in one of the numerous modernistic "Desert Homes of Tomorrow" already erected at the site of the new desert development in beautiful Borrego valley, 105 miles southeast of Palm Springs.

"I greatly admire what Frank is doing in spite of the difficulties such as the lack of facilities."

In his letter to Partridge, he wrote:

David W. Armstrong, executive director, Boys Clubs of America, is spending the week commencing Feb. 7, at the Desert Inn.

"APPRECIATING the splendid work that you are doing in conducting the Boys' Club of Palm Springs, I believe that it will be of great interest to you to meet Mr. Armstrong and talk to him regarding the local Boys' Club problems.

"Unquestionably one of the first requisites of a Boys' Club is to have prior facilities. The Welfare and Friendly Aid association of Palm Springs is now constructing a Youth Center and reading in the pamphlet put out by the Community Chest of the nature and purpose of the Welfare and Friendly Aid association, it seems to me that this association could very well set aside in the new building at least one room for the use of the Boys' Club."

"The enclosed copy of a letter to Mr. Frank Partridge, who single-handed, has been conducting a Boys' Club in Palm Springs, is self explanatory.

"Were I in Palm Springs as I had expected, this is a matter which I would have taken up personally, and although I at first hesitated to ask you to give of the time that you had set aside for your vacation, to this purpose, I am asking your consideration as the Welfare and Friendly Aid association can make no finer contribution to youth than by providing a location for the Boys' Club in Palm Springs."

February, the shortest month in the year, seems to crowd in the most birthdays. This week featured two of them, Abraham Lincoln's, the founder of the Republican party, fell on Wednesday, while the Village's most prominent Democrat, Pop Gorham, celebrated his on Monday. No school holidays here for either Washington's or Lincoln's birthdays. We take ours out in early spring adjournment.

Willie and Trudy Rogers' party for Stuart Hopps Sunday evening turned out to be a pre-marital celebration for Ruth Roberson and Claude Velour who left the gathering and drove to Las Vegas to be married.

LOCAL TENNIS COURTS are seeing much activity these balmy days. Jack Gorham is trying to avoid muscle atrophy by banging the balls around with Ernie Dunlevie at the Tennis Club. Gus Kettmann managed to get in a few sets at the Racquet Club this week and had for his partner the charming Diane Lewis. The farsighted Kettmann's are now assured a cool and comfortable summer. They will be in the Hansen cabin in Idyllwhale while Mr. and Mrs. Laurits Hansen take that trip they've planned for all during the war years to Denmark.

Joining the weekly dancers at Deep Well this week were Jimmy Cooper and Johnny Boyle. Johnny has thoroughly enjoyed getting back to the Village and western life but can't quite get over the way the town has grown and developed.

Community Hospital Notes

There was a very busy group of women in the committee room at the hospital, when I went by yesterday. Mrs. Ida Hotchkiss and Mrs. Stanley Rosin of the Volunteer Workers committee, had brought in stacks of surgery towels to be hemmed, surgery pads to be made and marked.

The Palm Springs Jewish Women's group had come to do the work, machines were whizzing and busy thimbled fingers were doing the needle work, several of the ladies were stamping surgery robes. By 4 o'clock the work was finished, stacked again and ready for sterilization. Next time the committee has to task, the Community church sewing group has offered to do the work.

THE EXECUTIVE committee had a meeting Tuesday afternoon, the members of all whom had been at the luncheon to honor Kenneth Kirk the day before, were delighted at the outcome of the Community Chest drive. The management committee is very happy to have Val Blatz back, and helping them again, he is pleased to be back in Palm Springs and warm up after his stay in Milwaukee.

The patients at the hospital this week were:

Oscar Fink, Daniel Montague, Mrs. Francis Robinson, Baby Rahn, Kenneth Porter, Miss Barbara Brown, Mrs. Lydia Miles, Mrs. Lillian Berry, Mrs. Charlotte Watson, Mrs. William Bowers, Mrs. Emma Tesch, Mrs. Helen Fisher, Herbert Herff, Mrs. Jack Gohlstern, Mrs. Abbie Holland.

Mrs. Gertrude Bruce, Mrs. Ruth Williams, Miss Ann DiBarry, Walter Smith, Master Adolfo Mediano, Mrs. Nancy Tuttle, Mrs. Emile Rieux, Miss Genevieve Ranger, Mrs. Yvonne Wipf, Lewis Henry.

to Aid Villagers

Assistance in preparation of state income tax returns will be available in Palm Springs on February 26, it was announced this week.

A deputy from the Franchise Tax Commissioner's office will be at the city council chambers a week from next Wednesday to answer questions on the state tax and aid in filling out forms. The council chambers are in the El Paseo building, 81 North Palm Canyon drive.

SINGLE PERSONS whose net income was over $3000 and married couples whose combined net income was over $4500 or in either status if the gross income was over $6000 are required to file state returns.

Inasmuch as provisions of the California Income Tax Law differ in many respects from those of the Federal Revenue Act, taxpayers having any questions are invited to call on the state representative to have them answered.

It is pointed out that the above date is the only time when personal assistance will be available and taxpayers are urged to avail themselves of this service in order to justify a representative being assigned here next year.

There is no charge for this service.

NO DISTINCTION

"Yes, son," said the man of the house, "When I was your age I was next highest in my grade." "Don't take that too seriously," sighed mother, "your father went to a little red schoolhouse and there were only two pupils in his class."

LIVE IN THE NILE VALLEY OF AMERICA

HIDDEN SPRINGS RANCH

A Development by the Original Owner and Founder of Smoke Tree Ranch

"AND A RIVER WENT OUT OF EDEN TO WATER THE GARDEN." (Gen. II: 10.)

1200 acres strictly residential in 1, 2½, 5 and 10 acre estates where owners may have their own stables and a guest house.

LOCATION selected with discernment born of wide desert experience, to meet current migrations to spaciousness.

PRICED to meet the demands of the conservative and dollar-conscious through acquisition prior to land inflation (1939).

DISCRIMINATING restrictions and high standards as the foundation to another superior development.

NEW CONCEPTION OF DESERT LIVING

Private residence on the desert has, hitherto, been limited to cramped lots in crowded resort villages or to ownership in remote areas devoid of services and social contacts. Hidden Springs Ranch introduces a new form, the basic idea of which is acquisition of privacy and seclusion through spaciousness combined with easy commuting distance to the shops, theatres and social life of Palm Springs. Too well known, to the initiated, is the responsibility, care and expense of the secondary homes for play purposes. It is the broad plan of the developer, based on experience in a prior development, to provide those innumerable services which enables the luxury of a private desert estate without the expense and responsibility. The plan of operation, based on previous performance, contemplates meals, maid service, summer caretaker, care of plantings and the elimination of those objectionable features which often make possession of outlying properties a domestic drudgery and excessive expense. The purpose being to afford values far in excess of any mere sand.

WIND PROTECTED

The lands nestled under the protecting arm of the San Bernardino Mountain Range are probably the most wind protected sections in the upper Coachella Valley and unexcelled by even the sheltered nooks at the foot of San Jacinto around Palm Springs. The several thousand areas protected by the arm of this mountain range are not to be confused with the intervening areas exposed to the devastating sand storms which blow down out of the San Gorgonio Pass along the floor of the valley between Palm Springs and Thousand Palms hinterland. The sheltered cove to the east of Thousand Palms in which is located Hidden Springs Ranch and other exclusive residential developments, has the additional asset of nearly two hours more sunshine than at the base of San Jacinto Mountain, less rain, full views of the snow capped peaks and approximately ten degrees warmer weather in winter due to the freedom from the icy down-draughts off San Jacinto.

UTILITIES—ROADS

Electricity—cheap, Imperial Irrigation District rates. Domestic water for 3000 people—pure, fresh well water. Paved road straight from Palm Springs right to the ranch gates—15 minutes running time.

Texas natural gas from the "Big Inch," Texas-California main in 1947-48, will be available—the only gas service off this high pressure main between Texas and Los Angeles.

FINANCIAL STABILITY

It is pertinent to every buyer risking his money, to know the financial strength and ability to consummate plans. He is entitled to know the facts. Every acre of this 1200-acre development is owned free and clear. There are no debts. None are contemplated. The ranch carries its own accounts. No finance or money-changers involved. There is no fly-by-night financing or hit and run subdividing by irresponsible developers selling others land under releases, unconcerned with long term future trends. The owner is a responsible land owner with the largest contiguous holding in the upper Coachella Valley.

SCHOOLS

In the Palm Springs High School District with school bus from the Thousand Palms townsite and eventually from the ranch. Grade school at the corner two miles distant.

And a river went out of Eden to water the garden. (Gen. II: 10.) Four thousand years ago the Egyptian peasantry bailed water by hand out of the Nile to nourish a barren soil. Ancient peoples on the Euphrates and the Tigris, the Romans, and the Moors in Spain, knew the art of diverting water. Wherever the Mohammedan went he introduced irrigation. Probably nowhere in the world today is there so large a population depending solely on agriculture and so free of the risks of drought and floods as the Valley of the Nile.

The Shadoof of the Babylonian, the Sakia of India and Archimedes Screw are giving away to the technique of modern engineering. Mighty rivers are controlled with massive dams. Vast canals release flowing waters to rich sun-parched desert lands. Here in the great southwest, under construction, is one of the mightiest efforts of man to weld the resources of nature for the good of coming generations. The melting snows of the Rocky Mountains passing through the Colorado River to the sea will flow through the All-American Canal bringing life to the rich soil of the Coachella Valley.

As Egypt was once the granary of the Roman Empire, this desert valley, bathed in perpetual sunshine, nourished by cheap, abundant water, its living modernized with low cost power and air-conditioned homes, indeed, may become the Nile Valley of America. Within the memory of living men this Garden of the Sun may well become the home of a great population; its lands be priceless.

RECREATION PARADISE

Under the extreme western end of this vast All-American project lies the Thousand Palms area. Bureau of Reclamation engineering has eliminated the canal ditch with river water, in the western eight miles of the established district, substituting fresh water service to fulfill the government commitment. Acquisition of existent wells and the drilling of new wells, using the low cost power from the Imperial Dam, is currently planned by the Reclamation Bureau to supply fresh well-pumped water, to this limited area, for irrigation purposes. The expected cost will be less than $6.00 per acre annually. Upon completion of the project, now rapidly approaching consummation, the lands so served with fresh well water, versus river mineral water, will command a premium.

Large areas of Hidden Springs Ranch lie under the benefits of this All-American water service. While Hidden Springs Ranch is designed strictly as a distinctive residential suburb to Palm Springs, and definitely not to be confused with agriculture developments, the advantage of rich soil, combined with abundant low cost fresh well water, for irrigation uses, will enable owners to economically grow date trees, figs, alfalfa and ornamental plantings common to this semi-tropical valley, without severe penalty.

The lands were selected in 1939 in anticipation of this rare combination of valuable water rights with superb winter residence qualifications. As a result Hidden Springs stands today unparalleled among the developments within the ten-mile area of Palm Springs.

TORTOISE AND HARE

Hidden Springs Ranch has a definite lure to that element of society to whom the dollar is still one hundred cents. It meets the demands of the socially sure who place emphasis on a conservative development of slow steady growth, permanency, homogeneity and avoidance of mixed classes so common to high pressure promotions and the grandiose allurements common to California post war realty booms. It meets the requirements of the conservative buyer who seeks seclusion, privacy, peace and spaciousness without too great isolation and within easy commuting distance to centers. It meets the requirements of those who really want the desert.

Hidden Springs is an assurance of permanency and security to gracious simple living. The responsibility of substantial land ownership is combined with a developer of originality and proven record. Every project of Mr. Doyle's in the Palm Springs area is a successful going institution; the purchasers who entered with him in his initial stages have amply profited in terms of both desirable living and financial enhancement. His promises have always been fulfilled and faith kept with his buyers. In this the finest of all his developments there will be no exception. The very merits of the location and extra-ordinary assets of this two square mile property are, in itself, an assurance of perpetuity. The record of the developer has been one of slow but sure development with a solid foundation which spelled ultimate success, and behind every business, hotel or real estate development is the integrity, ability and experience of the human element.

I COULD HAVE BOUGHT

In a prior development Mr. Doyle once offered acre homesites for $1500. Today those same size plots sell for $9000.00 plus a required stock interest in the central facilities of $2500.00 or a total investment of $11,500 for an acre of land. That development has a waiting list and limits its annual sales due to taxes. It is entirely conceivable that with improvements of club and hotel the values of his newest undertaking may well surpass that of prior record.

CLUB—SWIMMING POOL— HOTEL

A temporary club is now open to owners of the ranch with a small swimming pool planned for this coming summer.

Without extravagant promises of grandiose sketches of future air-castles, the fixed program of the developer is an intimate permanent club and larger swimming pool, on land reserved for such purpose, within the oasis at the center of the development, tennis courts and usual recreation with stables.

★ THOUSAND PALMS COVE

The New Desert
15 Minutes from
Palm Springs
Direct Paved Road

The ranch plans to lease or sell another 70 acres of this gorgeous oasis for the purposes of an Arizona Biltmore-type of pretentious hotel when the age of frustrations has passed and building of sizeable hotels again begins.

Estate owners in the property will then have a choice of their own privately controlled intimate club and facilities, or the more pretentious public accommodations.

That the plan has assurances of maturity is self-evident. The property contains the prime potential hotel site in the entire Coachella Valley, supplied by a flowing stream of mineral water, 400 huge trees 30 years old and the oasis hotel site surrounded entirely by fee owned lands to prevent nuisance encroachment upon a large investment.

FUNDAMENTAL REQUISITES OF DESERT LIVING

1. The physical property—land freedom from wind, floods, noise and traffic.

2. Services—summer care, central recreations, meals, pool, stables.

3. Who will be one's neighbors? What kind of people will your children play with? How mixed will the groups be after the property sold? How careful are the developers in selectivity of owners? Have they accepted anyone who offers the price? What standards have they and what, above all, is their record in this kind of projects? "People" after all finally make the place.

IN THE LAND OF PLAY

To those who have lived on the desert, know the thrill of awakening on a winter morning with a warm sun shining through the open windows; who have risen to ride across the desert sage for breakfast cooked over the open fire; who have watched the sun go down behind the snow-capped peaks of the western mountains; who have ridden off to some distant landmark in the soft fragrance of a brilliant, starlit desert night, bridles tinkling accompaniment to the thoughts of the rider, cowboys loping behind with songs of the old Southwest; who have known the romance of an evening in a desert oasis while a big full moon rose slowly over the eastern horizon, coloring the peaks and desert floor, the majestic silence broken only by the gently swaying fronds of the palms or the soft notes of a banjo; to those who really know the desert, no language can adequately picture the lure and tranquility of a home in this land where the troubled world may be forgotten in the sheer happiness of living.

Carl Barkows Observe 35th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Barkow celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary last Monday night at a dinner given in their honor and those of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodworth, celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary, at the Mission Inn in Riverside.

Mr. Barkow is co-publisher of The Desert Sun and his wife is editor of the Banning Record. He is also the publisher of the latter publication. Among the twenty-five persons present was Harold Barkow, former business manager of this newspaper and his wife. He is now the publisher of the Fallbrook Enterprise and has recently purchased a home and lemon grove in that city.

Carl and Mabelle Barkow were married in San Bernardino in 1912. He has been publisher of the Banning Record for more than 25 years and was the co-founder of The Desert Sun twenty years ago.

The dinner party celebrating the double anniversaries was a gala affair. Beautiful floral pieces decorated the center of the table.

Then comes the suggestion that there be an entertainment tax on women's hats.

Western Night To Mark Benefit Event Feb. 21

Those who plan to attend the barbecue dinner-dance to be held at the Officer's Club at the Palm Springs Airfield, Friday, February 21, at 7 p. m., are in for more than a good time, according to those women of the Jewish Women's Group in charge of arrangements.

Theme of the event will smack with a Western flavor all the way from the barbecue dinner that is to be prepared by Jack Boyer to Ted Smith who will call the square dance tourne to the music of a cowboy band.

A FULL EVENING of entertainment with fun and surprises is in store for those who attend, it was promised.

Dinner tickets to the event are now on sale, it was announced and can be obtained at $5 each from any member of the Jewish Women's Group or by telephone 2289.

For those who do not wish to attend the barbecue and only want to take part in the dancing admission tickets at $1 per person may be obtained at the door.

Red Cross Board Hears Report from Chapter Manager

Board of directors of the Palm Springs branch of the American Red Cross held their monthly meeting Wednesday at Torney hospital with Raymond Cree presiding.

Miss Mary Ellen Pangle, manager of the Riverside county chapters of the Red Cross, was a guest. She gave a very interesting report on the Red Cross and especially the work done by the Red Cross at the recent hotel fire at Atlanta, Ga.

There is to be a breakfast meeting of the Red Cross Feb. 8, at 9 a.m. at Torney hospital. All members are urged to attend.

To add to your quaint names collection: O. H. King Cole, of Manitowoc, Wis., is an official of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America.

DON CABALLERO

THE EASTERN STAR Sweetheart Ball tonight promises to be a gala event. Held at Lee Bering's Tennis Club under the auspices of Mrs. Harold Murphy and her able assistants, the decorations are to be in the Valentine mood.

Among those who have reserved tables are Mrs. Josephine Sprague, Mrs. J. Carroll Naish, Dyke Freeman of Santa Monica, the William Maloufs, the Frank Purcells, the Harold Hicks, the Kenneth Kirks, Miss Margaret Whiting and Rudy Valle.

VISITING her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Armstrong, is Miss Jean Corle of Santa Barbara.

She is staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Corle; her father having just completed his new book entitled, "Listen, Bright Angel" concerning legends of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

AN ALL DAY horseback ride luncheon was given by Mr. and Mrs. Culver Nichols last Sunday. The riders took the trail from Andreas Canyon over to Murray Canyon and then rode up the new and beautiful Los Campadres Trail.

Those riding were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burge, Mr. and Mrs. Nichols, and Mrs. John Chaffey and her sons, John, Pete, and Ben Chaffey.

RETURNING to the Ingleside Inn for the rest of the season are Mr. and Mrs. John Gallois of San Francisco.

Also staying at the Inn are Mrs. Edward J. Posilus of Grosse Point, Michigan, and her three lovely daughters, Patsy, Jean, and Helen.

GUESTS of Mrs. Gerald Sanborn on Racquet Club road afe Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bekassy of Beverly Hills.

Mrs. Bekassy is known as Hagar Wilde, who has written such stage plays as "Guest in the House" and other mysteries. Mr. Bekassy is leaving shortly for New York to appear in the Broadway production, "The Whole World Over," by Constantine Seminov.

Dining at Lee Bering's Tennis Club on Tuesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Warburton, who had as their guests, Clarence Brown and Miss Marion Spees.

Also seen dining at the Tennis Club were Mr. and Mrs. William Dean of Smoke Tree Ranch with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Wood. And the Stuart Hopps entertained Mr. and Mrs. Gallardo Moren from Mexico City. Mr. Henry Rose of New York entertained for his daughter, Miss Corky Rose. His guests included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lukas, Mrs. Jane Stanton Gallagher, and Mr. Robert Hornstein.

HAVE YOU EVER seen a hat trimmed with a live snake? Well, at the Desert Rider's Wacky Hat breakfast on Wednesday Mrs. Winifred Archer arrived with a three-foot king snake wound artistically around her red hat. The effect was startling and certainly original.

First prize went to Mrs. J. Frank Meyer with her large Mexican hat laden with vegetables and fruit, and topped off with a miniature market basket. Second prize was won by Mrs. Anita Haskell Jones whose hat looked like a hay stack, complete with chickens and eggs.

The men were even more original. Bill Ortwin advertised almost too well, his hat was topped with an airplane that really flew in circles around the brim. Need we mention that it was a Western Air Lines plane.

Second prize was won by Culver Nichols who arrived looking more like a willow tree than a hat. He was entirely hidden by neckties which flowed artistically from the brim down to his shoulders.

Special mention should go to Mary Jane Hicks with her Valentine hat and to Billy Mosely who reversed hats with her horse who arrived with a large pink ribbon tied under its chin and one ear waving through the brim.

SATURDAY NIGHT at the Racquet Club found a group from Hollywood that would have been the delight of any photographer. Rosalind Russell and her husband, Fred Brisson, were dining at the same table with Paul and Daisy Lukas, Bill and Mousie Powell, Charlie and Virginia Farrell, Spencer Tracy, and Mrs. Howard Hawks.

GUESTS of Raymond Hatton at Rancho Paradise this week were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Peniston of Beverly Hills. They were down with their two sons, Bill and Grant.

"He calls that 45-acre ranch of his 'Rancho Paradise,'" said Peniston. "When I asked him why, the only answer he had was 'that it just is.'"

THE STABLES came to life again last Sunday night when Mr. and Mrs. Travis Rogers were hosts at a Hawaiian dinner to a group of eastern friends.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hopps of New York, here for the balance of the season.

More than two score Villagers and winter residents enjoyed the affair.

IN PALM SPRINGS Tuesday, en route back to Sierra Madre after a tour of the desert were three Episcopal Fathers. In the party were Father Smith, Father Burke and Father Crane.

In the Village they called on R. F. Graettinger, editor of The Desert Sun, who was formerly clerk of the vestry at Christ Church, Ontario, when Father Smith officiated there.

COMING from Los Angeles, Thomas W. Burdine and from Glendale, Lillian N. Kothman were married Saturday afternoon at the Community church here with Dr. J. R. Macartney officiating.

Accompanying them here were Mr. and Mrs. James Burdine.

After the ceremony, wedding dinner was enjoyed at the Colonial House.

GUESTS at the Del Tahquitz this week included Mr. and Mrs. Gerald G. Hoyt who were married in Las Vegas February 1 and spent their honeymoon here.

Mrs. Hoyt, formerly Marcia Youesen, is a "Jim Stuart" model. Mr. Hoyt is a U. S. C. graduate and a Trojan knight.

Mrs. Hoyt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Youesen of West Los Angeles while Mr. Hoyt is the son of Mrs. Lillian Hoyt of Los Feliz Hills, Los Angeles.

ACME grows its own Hops

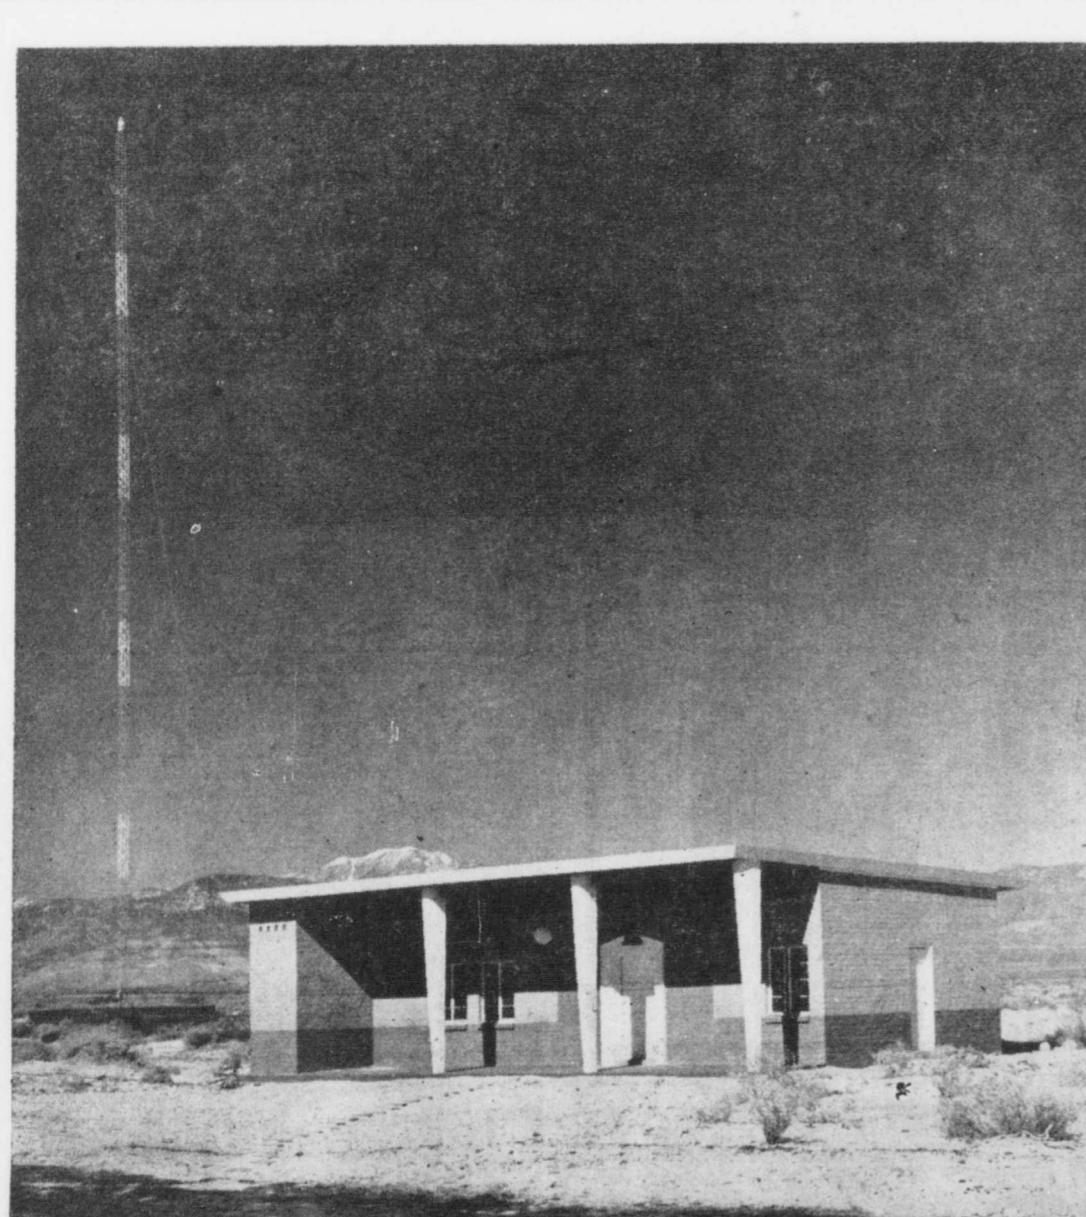

The secret of beer flavor is in the hops used in brewing. In all the world there are no finer hops than those grown on the Acme Hop Ranch, near Yuba City, California. Acme hops, supplemented by other choice types for a balanced blend, give Acme Beer a tangy, distinctive flavor that beer drinkers prefer to any other by a two-to-one popularity ratio... in the Western states.

Announce Winners In Five-Week Shoot At Village Range

Ending what club officials termed one of the hottest contested small bore rifle matches in the history of the local Palm Springs-Coachella Valley Pistol and Rifle Club, was the five week's series of 50-yard, night range, matches, ending last Friday night, in which nine high ranking shooters were awarded handsome medals in three classifications.

True to expectations, the last match produced several member-competitors who proved to be "dark horses" by shooting scores into high brackets and among those were I. C. McCoy in expert class, Winfield H. Line, sharpshooter, and Ray Tompkins, marksman class.

Winners were:

EXPERT CLASS: Harry H. Mann, 398 out of 400; I. C. McCoy, second place, 394 2/3; Warren A. James, third, 384; M. E. Cameron, fourth, 383; H. F. Bennett, fifth, 392 2/3; Arthur Whitlock, sixth, 390 2/3.

SHARPSHOOTER CLASS: Jill V. Moore, winner, 392 2/3; Lester P. Peck, second place, 390; Winfield H. Line, third, 386 1/3; Robert D. Camp, fourth, 384 1/3.

MARKSMAN CLASS: Ray Tompkins, winner, 385 1/3; John Carlson, second place, 381 1/3; Angeline Whitlock, third, 373 2/3; Robert Hillery, fourth, 373 2/3; Joseph Sandefer, fifth, 369; George Thomason, sixth, 359.

A NEW SERIES of matches will start this Friday night, February 14th with nine medals also awarded at the end of the shoot. A change in the length of the shoots has been made in which the matches will be restricted to three weeks for each instead of five, starting with this shoot.

It is pointed out that a greater variety of shoots may be had under this system with a better distribution of awards and plans have also been made to add two additional classifications, master-expert and marksman first classes making a total of five, which will add to separate ranks of shooters and give all an equal chance to win.

THE SHOOT STARTING this Friday night, will be a "four-point" match with ten shots in each prone, sitting, kneeling and rapid fire standing-to-prone positions, the latter being in 70 seconds. Sights will be restricted to "iron sights" only, also with blade front sight.

All shooters and spectators are welcome to attend. Range is located half way between Cathedral City and Palm Springs on right. A good turn-out was had this Tuesday night which marked the opening of a four-week's match over a modified police course with medals likewise being awarded at finish. Pistol matches are to be featured each Tuesday night following for the balance of the season.

MONUMENT TO ECONOMY

When the city fathers of Glasgow received Sir John Carr in 1807, they asked the advice of their distinguished visitor concerning the inscription to be placed on the lately completed Nelson monument.

"I think," suggested Sir John, "that it would be appropriate to use the simple inscription, 'Glasgow to Nelson.'"

This suggestion met with the wholehearted approval of the venerable councilman, who broke in, "Juist so-and as the town o' Nelson's close by, might we no' juist put below, 'six miles' wi' a finger pointing, and so it might serve for a monument and a mile-stane too!"

Sincerely yours,
PHILIP L. BOYD,
Assemblyman, 76th District.

The bride, formerly Julia Weisenkopf, is a well known bio chemist and was in charge of the laboratory at the Palm Springs Community Hospital before establishing the laboratory at the office of Dr. Hugh Stevens. Letters to the Editor

Editor The Desert Sun: During this short recess of the State Legislature it is impossible for me to personally contact many of my constituents. Yet the purpose of this interval in the Session is for a legislator to learn the popular reaction to proposed legislation and to his attempt to serve his district.

By means of this letter and several to follow I hope to supply some information which will interest thoughtful citizens of Riverside county.

I FEEL FORTUNATE in my committee appointments received during the organization of this Fifty-seventh California Legislature. The new Speaker complied with my request and appointed me a member of the three committees upon which I feel I can serve my country's best interests. They are agriculture, municipal and county government, and ways and means.

The extensive and varied agricultural activities in my district make service on the agriculture committee of interest to me. Citrus and deciduous fruits, dates, alfalfa, grain, poultry and other Riverside products are affected by current regulatory legislation referred to this group.

OUR COUNTY government and the twelve incorporated cities in my assembly district have encouraged me to seek service on the municipal and county government committee. We are hoping to provide new sources of revenue for these two branches of government and thus relieve the property taxpayer's burden.

The ways and means committee is usually considered to be the most influential in any legislative body. It also requires the most effort as it is meeting almost daily throughout the year. The state budget, this year over six hundred million dollars, and all appropriation bills must pass through this committee before final action in either the assembly or the Senate.

I ALSO FEEL fortunate to have received appointments on the state property acquisition board and the state public works board which will be concerned with the state's long postponed $200,000,000 construction program.

It is my desire to discuss briefly in subsequent letters the following subjects, the state's ten-year expressway plan, the Governor's health legislation, city and county government bills, labor legislation, and the alarming increase in government expense.

Communications from Riverside county citizens will be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

PHILIP L. BOYD,
Assemblyman, 76th District.

Dr. Hubert Herring to Address Forum Meeting Thursday

Dr. Hubert Herring, author of two best sellers on Latin America and lecturer of note on Pan-Americanism is scheduled to address a free public forum meeting Thursday, February 20, at 7:45 p.m. at the El Paseo Theatre.

Dr. Herring's address, the fifth to be given in the current series on the theme "Toward a People's Peace," has been announced as a talk on "Good Neighbors—Next Steps in Western Hemispheric Policies."

DR. HERRING has specialized on Latin America for twenty years; has made more than forty trips to the southern republics, living in one or another of them for substantial periods; he is lately returned from a stay in Argentina. He has known presidents and peasants, and travelled far afield in the southern areas. He keeps in constant touch with a wide circle of Latin American friends—writers, artists, politicians, businessmen. As founder and director for eighteen years of The Committee on Cultural Relations with Latin America, he has introduced more leaders of American life to the nations South than any other. His interpretation of inter-American relations is given against the background of much study in Europe, and of intimate association with Washington.

Dr. Herring's recent books, "Good Neighbors" (Yale, 1941) and "Mexico, The Making of a Nation" (Foreign Policy Association, 1942) have been among the best sellers on Latin America; both are widely used in colleges and universities. His articles on Latin America have appeared in scores of publications—Harper's, Current History, The New York Times, The Herald-Tribune, Yale Review, The Virginia Quarterly Review, Survey Graphic, etc.

DR. HERRING has appeared before hundreds of audiences, such as those of the Foreign Policy Association in a dozen cities, the Council on Foreign Relations of Chicago, the Detroit Economic Club, colleges and universities—over a hundred of them—the leading open forums and clubs.

During recent years he has taken part in over fifty "Inter-American Institutes" on American campuses, speaking from one to ten times on such programs. He is known for his tough realism in international affairs. On Latin America, he is convinced that the romantic sheen on much of the current talk about hemispheric solidarity must be washed off before we can have any helpful realism. He shares with others who know the realities of Latin America—and of Washington's relations to Latin America—a considerable skepticism as to how far the current flood of "good will" can take us; at the same time, he argues persuasively for building strongly for a better all-American understanding.

DR. ERNEST E. OERTEL, moderator of the forum meetings sponsored by the Palm Springs Union high school district, announced this week that Mr. Ver-

GALLANT THOUGHT

While we will neither affirm nor deny it, there are many who believe that a certain Southern judge won the favor of feminine voters and, incidentally, his recent election because of certain small but important considerations he shows the fair sex while conducting the business of his court.

One day recently he caused a certain young lady to give slight evidence in a case which did not seem at all necessary.

"Judge," he was asked later, "was it really necessary to place Miss Day on the stand yesterday?"

"No, it wasn't," admitted the Judge, "but I saw she had a new hat, and was anxious to show it off. So I just helped her do it!"

Woman's Club to Present Talented Children Tomorrow

The Palm Springs Woman's Club takes pleasure in presenting a group of talented children, known as the "Marimba Makers," in a matinee performance at the Plaza Theater tomorrow at 2:30 p. m.

Admission for adults will be $1.20, and for students 55 cents—children under nine years of age must be accompanied by an adult.

TICKETS ARE on sale at the Nellie Coffman school, and at the theater both in the lobby and at the box office.

These gifted young musicians are a product of Marimba Center, of which Emil L. Farnlund is founder and director. Outstandingly successful as a teacher of marimba for many years, Mr. Farnlund has also found time to play many of the best radio shows emanating from the West Coast on N.B.C., C.B.S., and the Mutual Network. His experience in the motion picture field includes all the major studios and he is at present a contract player at Paramount.

The "Marimba Merry Makers" are an example of Marimba Center training of which Mr. Farnlund is justly proud. There are a number of such groups in training at all times in the Marimba Center studios.

The state of Ohio leads all others in capacity for the production of both electric furnace steel and Bessemer steel.

Gray Ladies Hosts to March Field And Norco Patients

Twelve patients from Norco naval hospital were special guests Tuesday of the Gray Ladies Corps of Palm Springs at the Racquet Club and eight from March Field were entertained by the corps at the Tennis Club Wednesday.

The luncheon table at the Racquet Club Tuesday was set with placecards with a keying for each man and they were also given picture postcards of the Village, all stamped and ready for mailing.

HIGHLIGHT of the afternoon was a brisk tennis match in which Vincent Foutrem, Jane Stanton, Eleanor Cushingham and Jack Cushingham participated.

The guests obtained autographs from Johnny Roosevelt and from other celebrities at the club.

Those assisting in Tuesday's affair were Mrs. Irving Snyder, in charge, and Mrs. J. B. McCullough, Mrs. Alice Guthrie, Mrs. Kenneth Colburn and Mrs. Frank Purcell.

WEDNESDAY at the Tennis Club, Winfield Line presented his lecture to the March Field patients. His talk two weeks ago to a group from Norco was so interesting that he was asked to repeat it.

Mrs. Earl Hoover was in charge of Wednesday's affair and assisting her were Mrs. Frank Camp, Mrs. Edward Maggard and Mrs. R. W. Hausher.

The "Marimba Merry Makers" are an example of Marimba Center training of which Mr. Farnlund is justly proud. There are a number of such groups in training at all times in the Marimba Center studios.

The state of Ohio leads all others in capacity for the production of both electric furnace steel and Bessemer steel.

Will the Kind Customer who sent a box of Fun in the Sun Candies to a prominent newspaper publisher and radio station owner in Palm Beach, Florida, please get in touch with us, and let us know which kind of candy he received.

He was very pleased with it, and wrote asking us to send some to a list of friends, including the Governors of New York, Florida and Kentucky.

We shall be happy to make an exception to our rule of "no mail orders," but since he describes the candy only as "Fun in the Sun Candies" and "delicious," we are at a loss to know what he received. Help, please!

Remember Flying H Ranch is centrally located. It's but a short way—and about the same distance to either Palm Desert or Palm Village. This will be the Bel Air and Beverly Hills district of the Palm Springs area. This acreage—of good rich earth, has an abundance of water for irrigation and domestic water. City conveniences with quiet country surroundings. You can and will enjoy every day you live in this beautiful desert community. Practically surrounded by date gardens—with a breath-taking view of mountains and desert. Remember—it's properly restricted for high class development. Don't fail to see this—now!
